

1975 TREASURE CHEST

PERRY HIGH SCHOOL

PERRY, OHIO

VOLUME XXXVIII

As we travel the winding path of life perhaps one of the most important parts of our journey is the time we spend in High School. This is the time when we evolve from children to adults, as we form our basic principles and traits. We learn not only from our teachers but from our fellow students, and also from all of the various activities in which we participate. We gain knowledge from our many achievements, as well as from our failures. With every event we experience we find a new facet of our true identity. Each of us becomes more of an individual with his own ideas and desires.

The purpose of our yearbook is to illustrate the events and activities which have taken place at Perry High School during the school year of 1974-75. In the years to come we will glance through the pages and fondly remember the days spent at Perry High School. Let us hope that these days have contributed to the value of our future, for "We May Never Pass This Way Again

"We may never pass this way again ~ ~ ~"

*ife so they say, Is but a game,
and they let it slip away*

Love like the Autumn sun should be dying but its only just begun

Like the twilight in the road up ahead they don't see just where they're goin'

And all the secrets of the universe will whisper in our ears, And all the years will come and go and take us up—always up.

We must gather all courage, Sail our fears and all the years will come ships out on the open sea Cast away our and go. And take us up— always up.

Each story develops around its characters — they're the most important part that we consider when we're telling a story from our heart.

The students: a sea of faces, going places. We students at Perry High are unique in a universal way. We hold youth in our hands while the wisdom that comes with age is growing in our minds. We have the power to conquer this new, puzzling world.

The teachers: who help us earn the truth we learn. Our teachers are helping to structure our futures. They construct for us foundations of knowledge and teach us how to climb from there.

The administration: the system that holds us together during the roughest of weather. However much we may rebel against it, our administrators are planting in us the discipline and respect that will be essential to us as adults.

The other helpers: add the finishing touch that can mean so much. The variety of helpers that we see each day can add a smile or cheery thought that will brighten any new beginning.

"Class of '78"

These Freshman are at the beginning of the happiest, most important time of their lives. Looking backwards to them, we realize that they still have a long way to go, but we cannot help but envy their youth and possibilities. We hope that they might learn from our mistakes in order to build more meaningful lives for themselves, and we pray that they will have the courage to accept the coming years with grace.

"Class of '77"

Growing is a sometimes happy, sometimes frantic, sometimes lonely, but nevertheless, always unique event. And growing is exactly what the Sophomores are doing—gaining priceless friends, priceless skills, priceless ideas and virtues. This is the time when their lives begin to take shape; and the most important factor is that they develop into real, significant, self-fulfilling lives.

Class Officers—Darrell McGroarty, President; John Antolovich, Vice President; Ruth Burchett, Secretary; Teresa Platko, Secretary.

"Class of '76"

"Almost a senior" is an intriguing way to be. You're ready to venture into a mature society — to dare to do anything. And yet, the security of your high school life is around to rely upon. Make the most of the coming year. Be inquisitive, try to conquer new and more difficult problems. Reflect some of your past into each new day, but never live in your past. Collect your happy memories and chalk your bad ones up as experience. Step forward bravely and surely. Go in peace and love.

Top: Don Ludwick, Ed Hazel, Student Council Representatives. Bottom: Sue Brack, Student Council Treasurer; Dan Wheeldon, President; Karen Marty, Vice President; Janice Sheets, Treasurer; Carol Orosz, Secretary.

"Class of '75"

We have reached the point that looks like the end but it is only the beginning. Many decisions face us in our lives and we must strive for success in the long road ahead. There are many different interests among us — some hope to be doctors or nurses, teachers, secretaries, mechanics, husbands, wives, and many more. But no matter what our interests are we have all worked together to reach that certain point. Now we are ready to work with others, meet new people, see new places, and to build new lives as individuals.

This is our last year
 And the end is coming near
 All of us are really glad
 But we will miss the friends we've had
 Some will go on to higher education
 While others apply with a job application
 Some will be waiting for a grade
 While others are waiting to be paid
 One thing for sure
 That will forever endure
 And those are the days
 The Perry High School days!

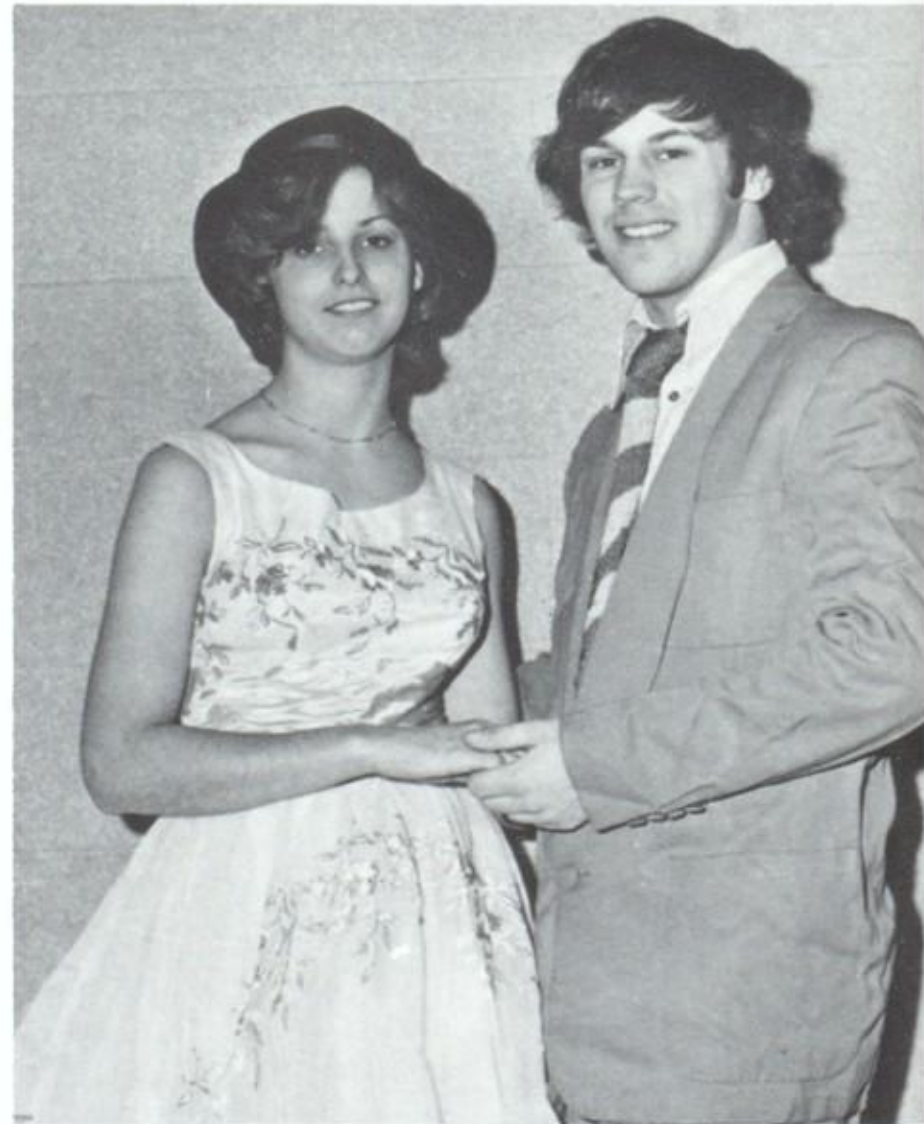

Senior Class Poll

Class Clown: Connie Chapman and Ken Brown.

Class Leadership: Greg Platko and Sandy Pomietlo.

Best Dressed: Steve Butsko and Nanci Morris.

Most Likely to Succeed: Jim Reho and Peggy Burchett.

Most Talented: Sandy Pometlo and John Posey.

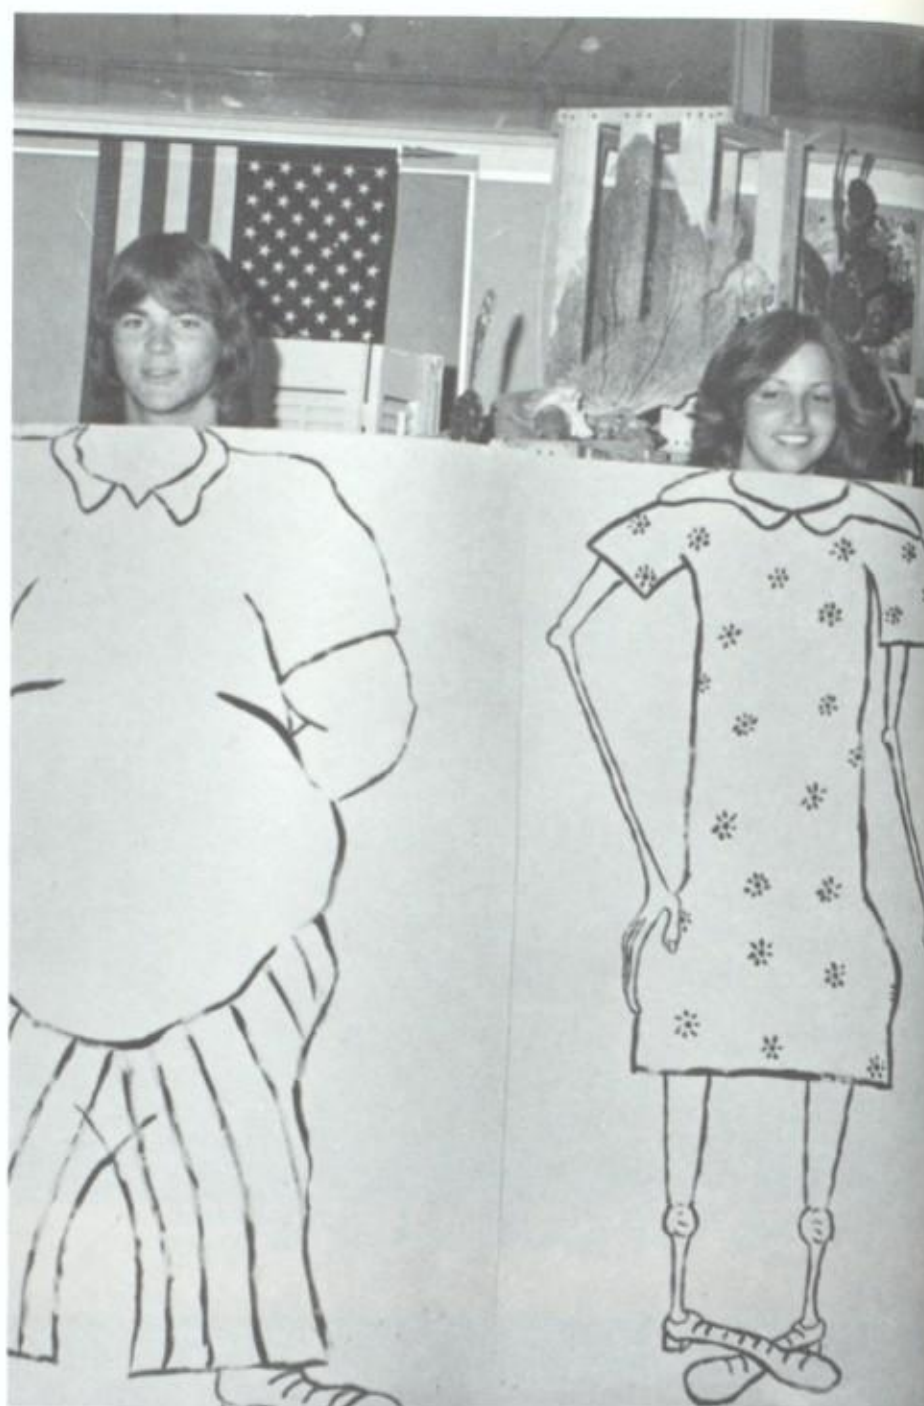

School Spirit: Ken Brown and Sandy Pometlo.

Senior Poll

The Senior Class Poll is a tradition at PHS. Through it, our most outstanding seniors are recognized by their peers. But more importantly, we must realize that no poll is extensive enough to measure or recognize every talent, and everyone of our seniors is outstanding in his own field.

Best Build: Nanci Morris and Mike White.

Most Athletic: Karen Pizzino and Rick Conder.

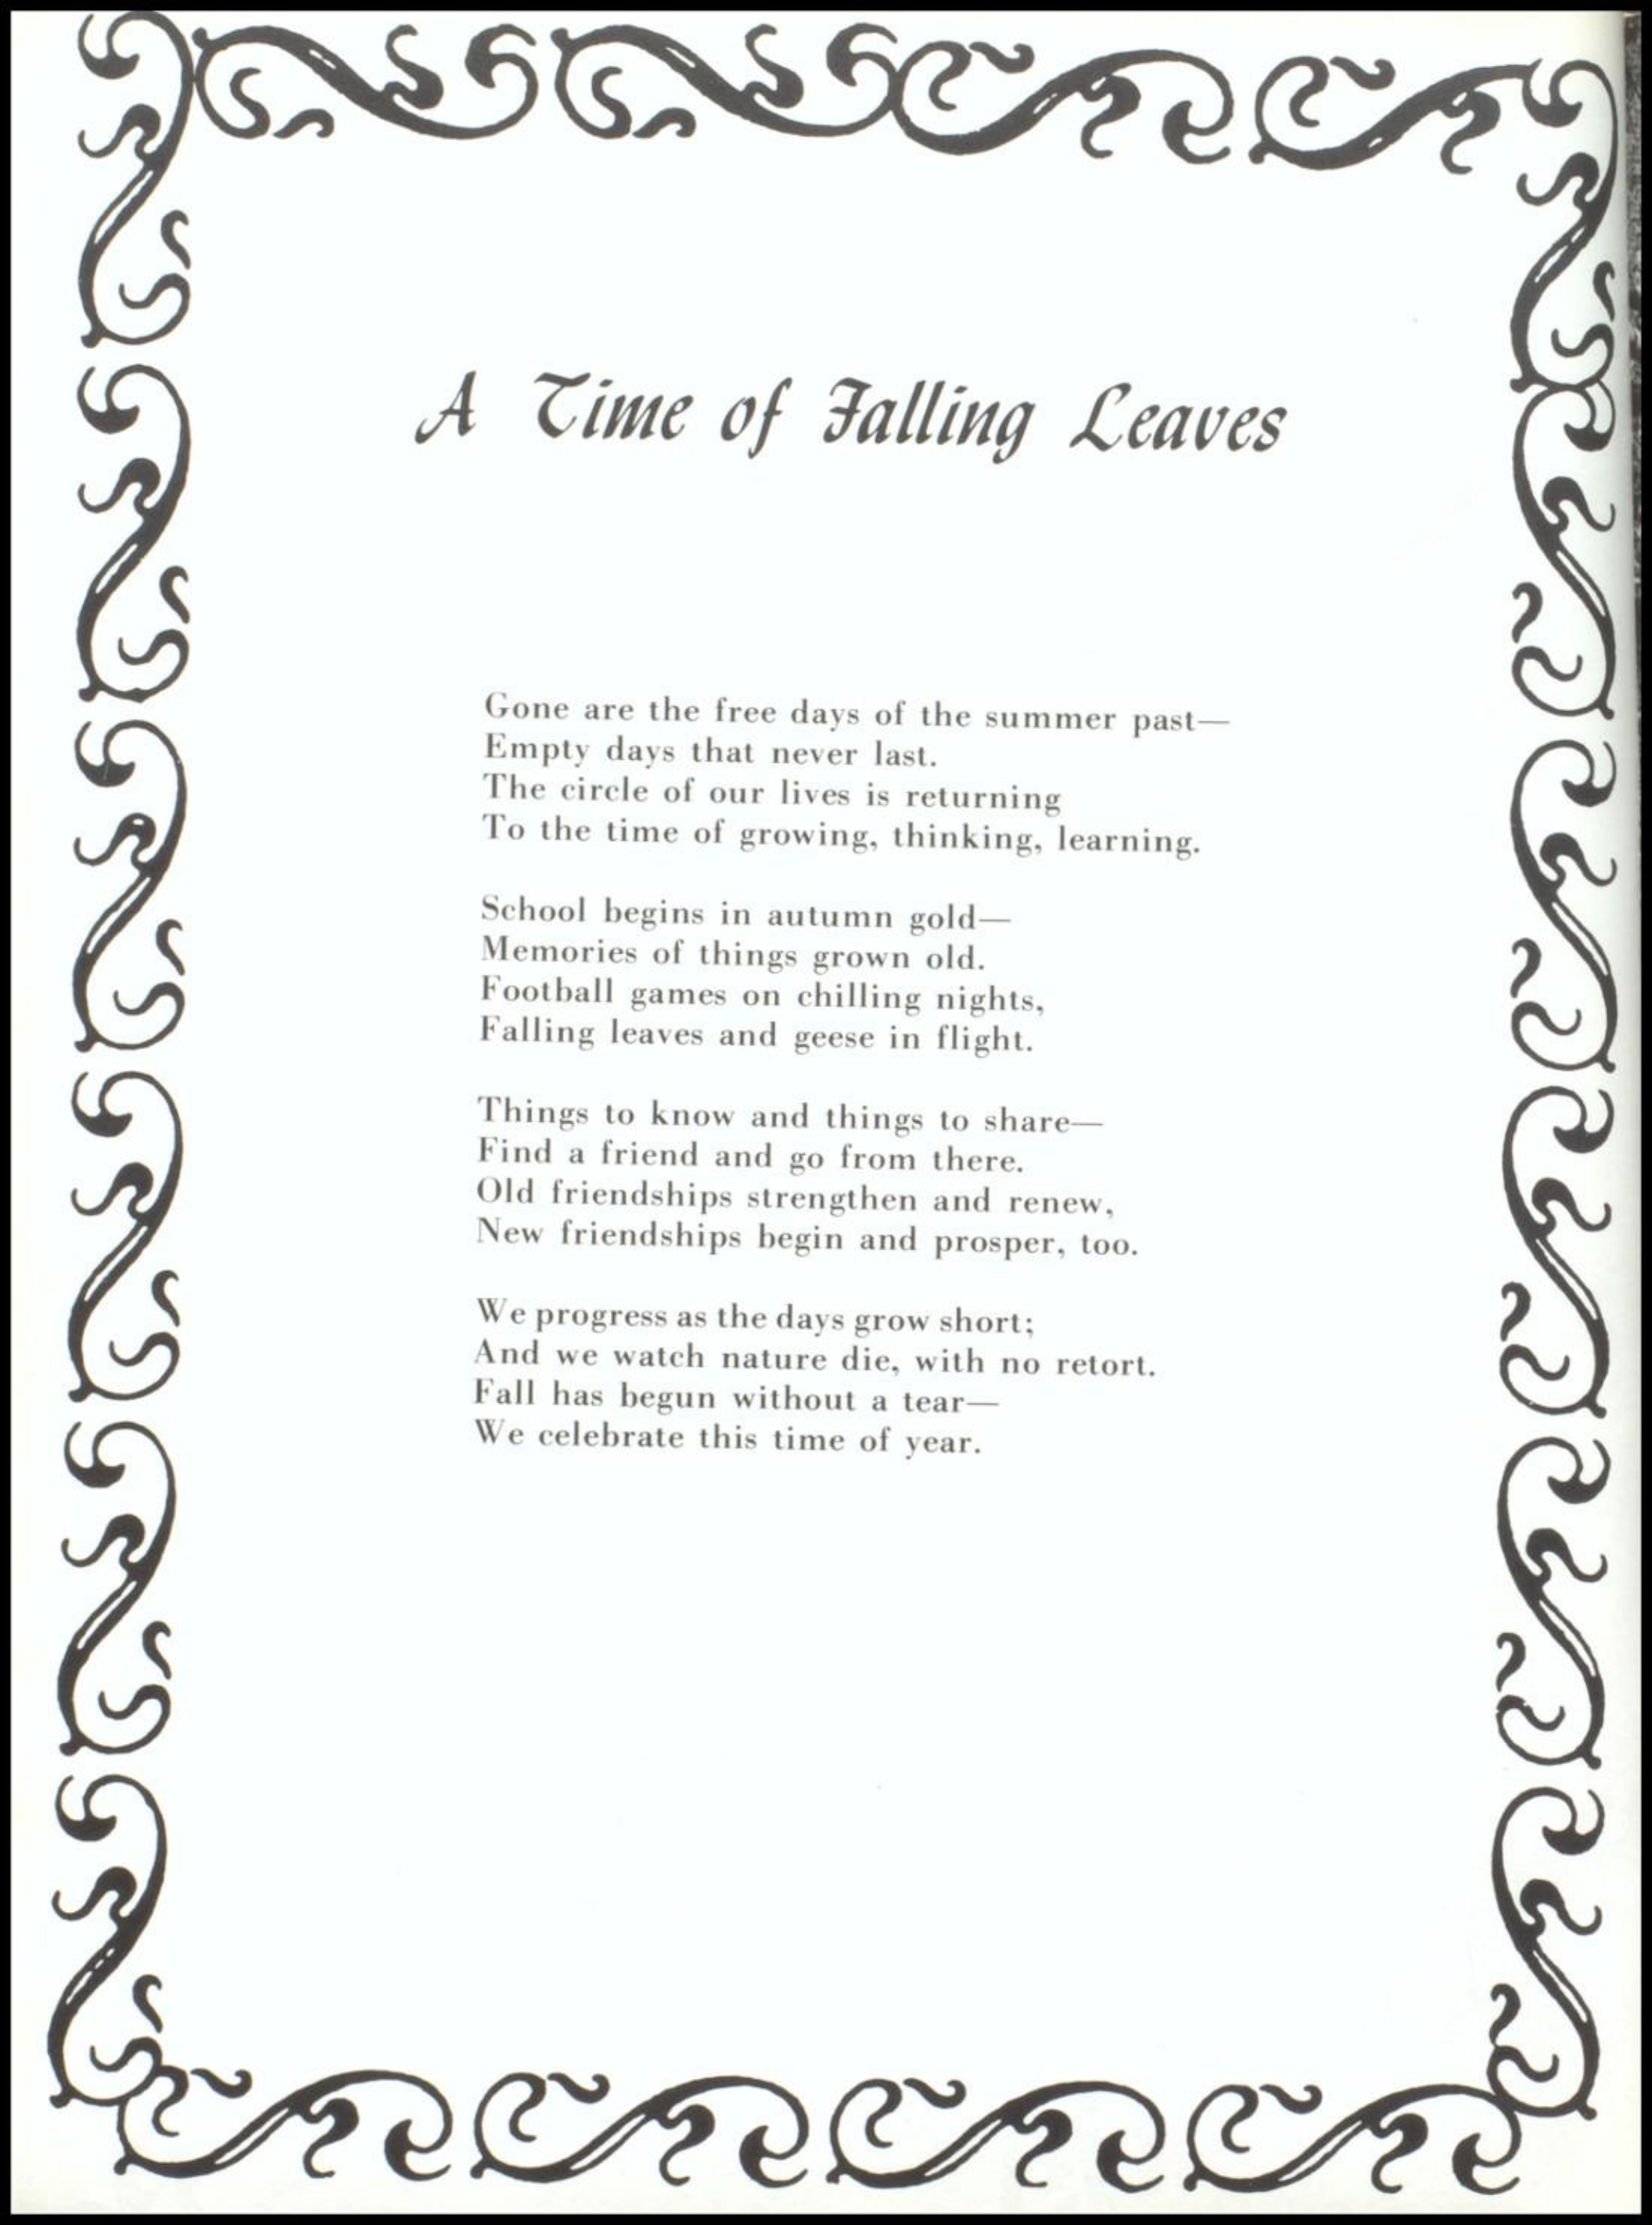

Class Flirt: Lorrie Henry and Carl Siegel.

Best Personality: Sue Strayer and Dennis Loria.

Prettiest Hair: Carol Fabel and Rick Tomlinson.

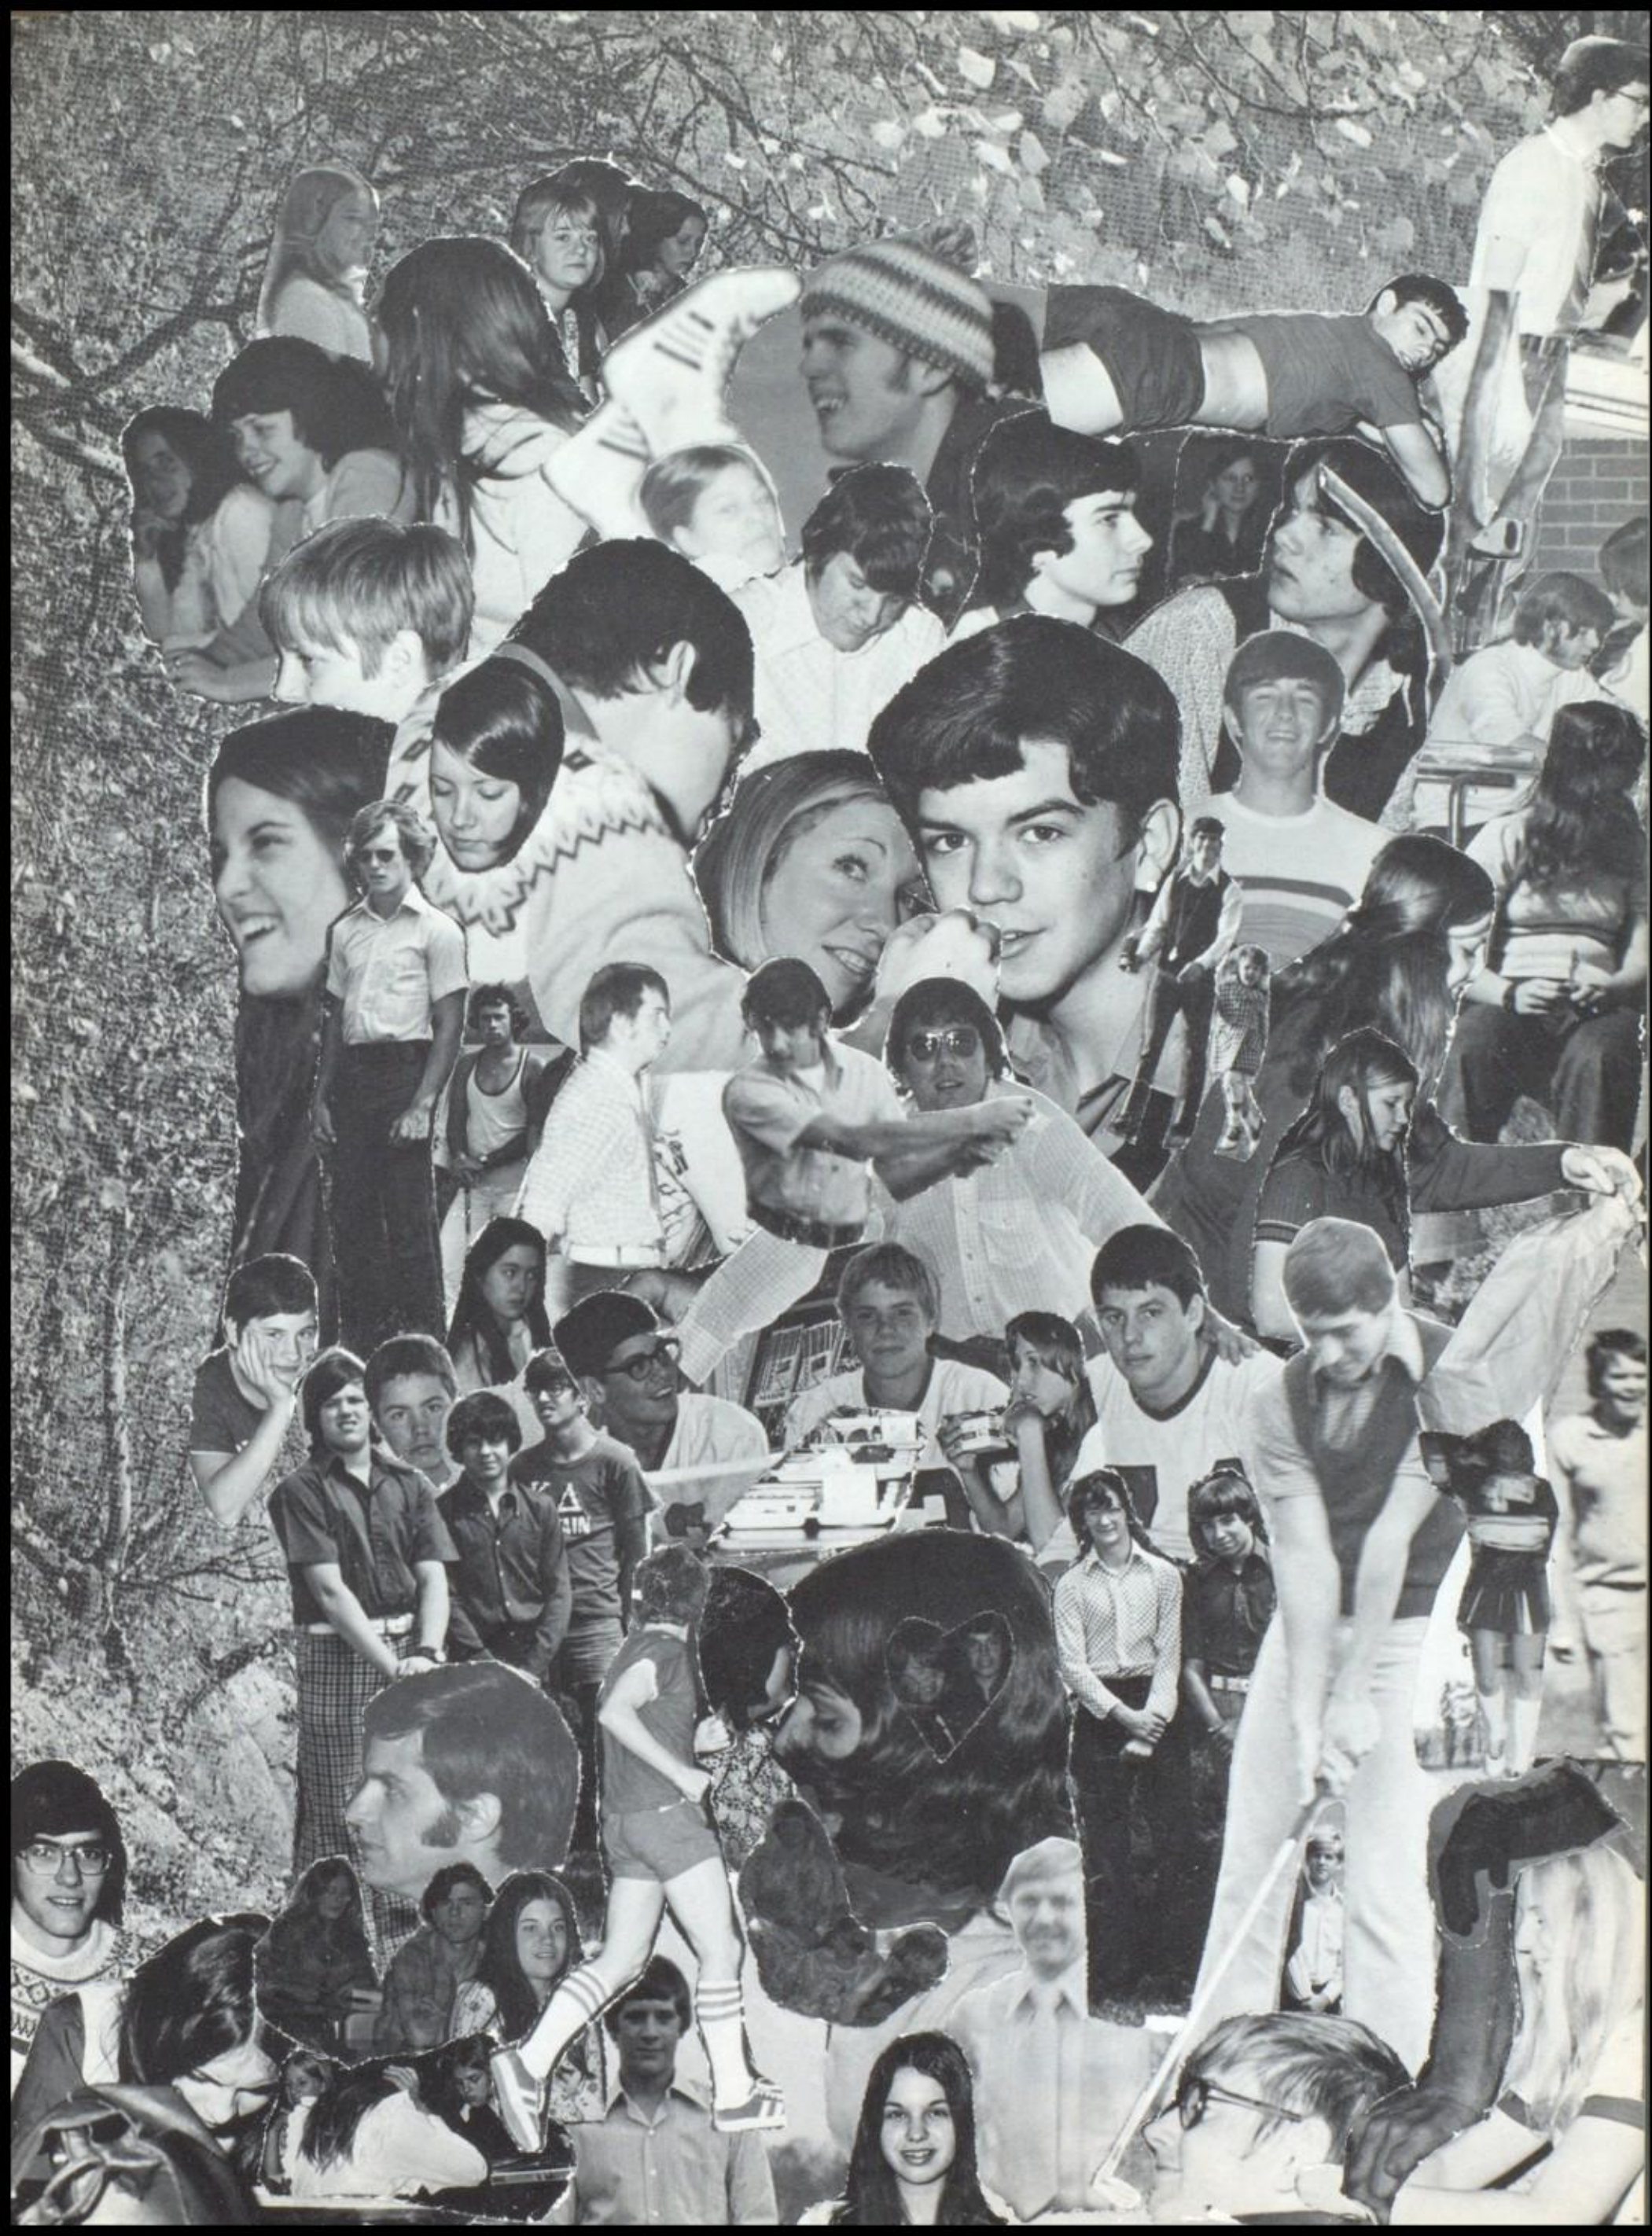

A Time of Falling Leaves

Gone are the free days of the summer past—
Empty days that never last.
The circle of our lives is returning
To the time of growing, thinking, learning.

School begins in autumn gold—
Memories of things grown old.
Football games on chilling nights,
Falling leaves and geese in flight.

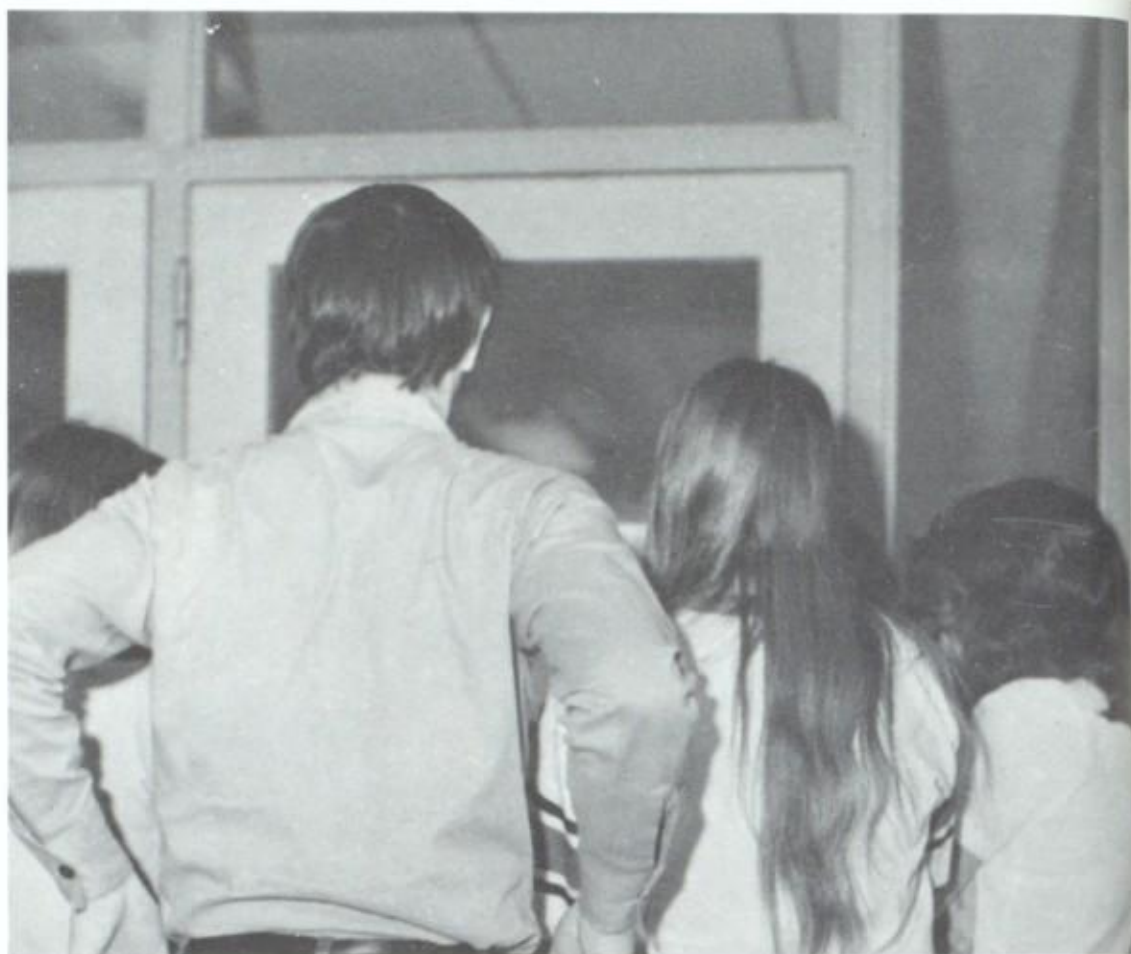

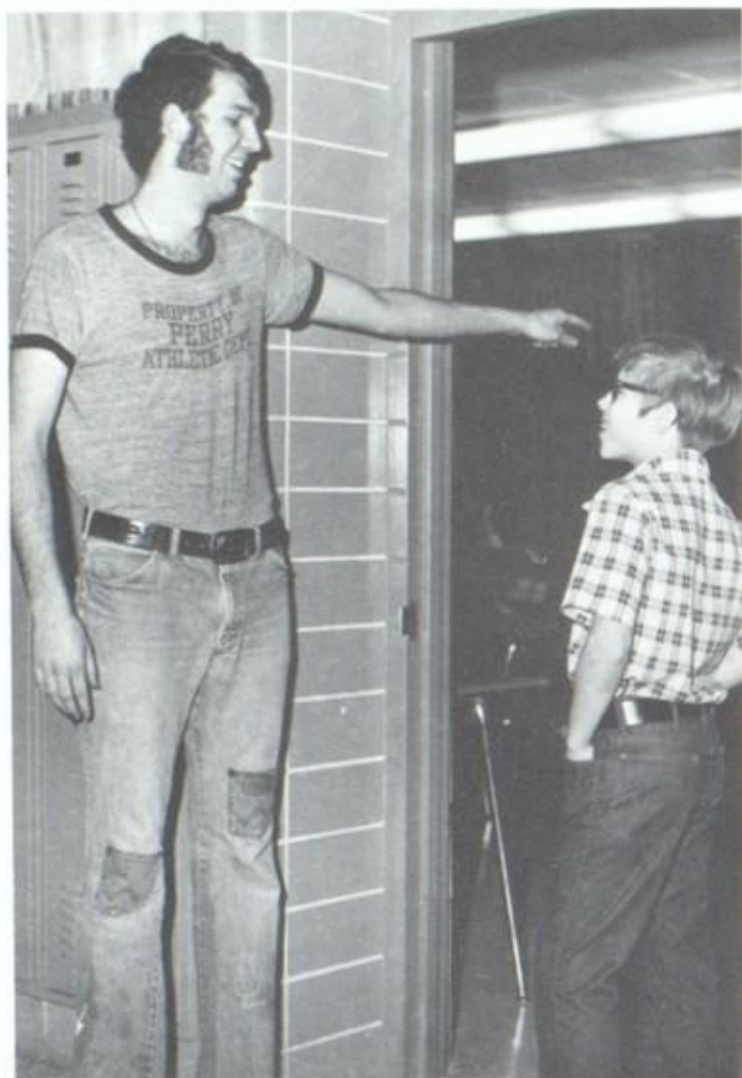

Things to know and things to share—
Find a friend and go from there.
Old friendships strengthen and renew,
New friendships begin and prosper, too.

We progress as the days grow short;
And we watch nature die, with no retort.
Fall has begun without a tear—
We celebrate this time of year.

Another summer passed like a bolt of lightning, we face the long climb of another school year before us. New and old faces roam the familiar halls. The mixed emotions portray the excitement of the day. What lies ahead is but a dream . . .

Office Aides

Along with being general errand-runners, the office aides act as receptionists, typists, and fill a variety of other jobs. They are the fraction of our student body who are willing to volunteer their time in order to help our office run as smooth as it does.

Cross Country

Cross Country, an active sport which requires much time and energy, is very popular in our school. Though the team is not very large, they have accomplished much in the past year. Doug Zinn was picked by the team as the most valuable player.

Football

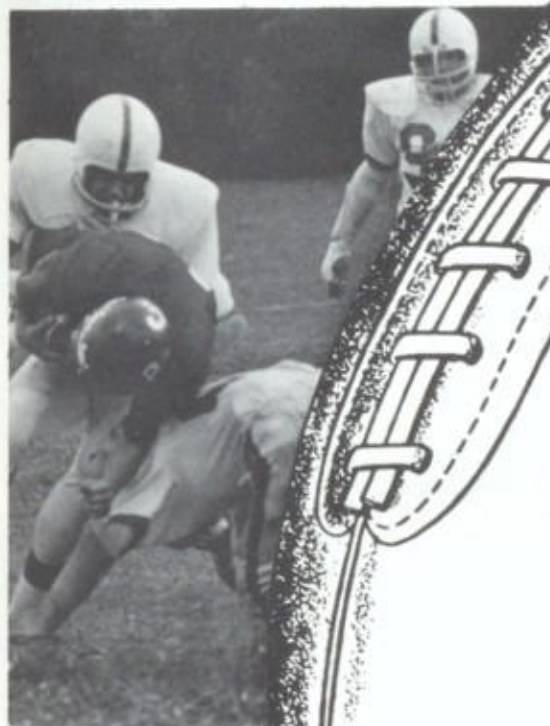

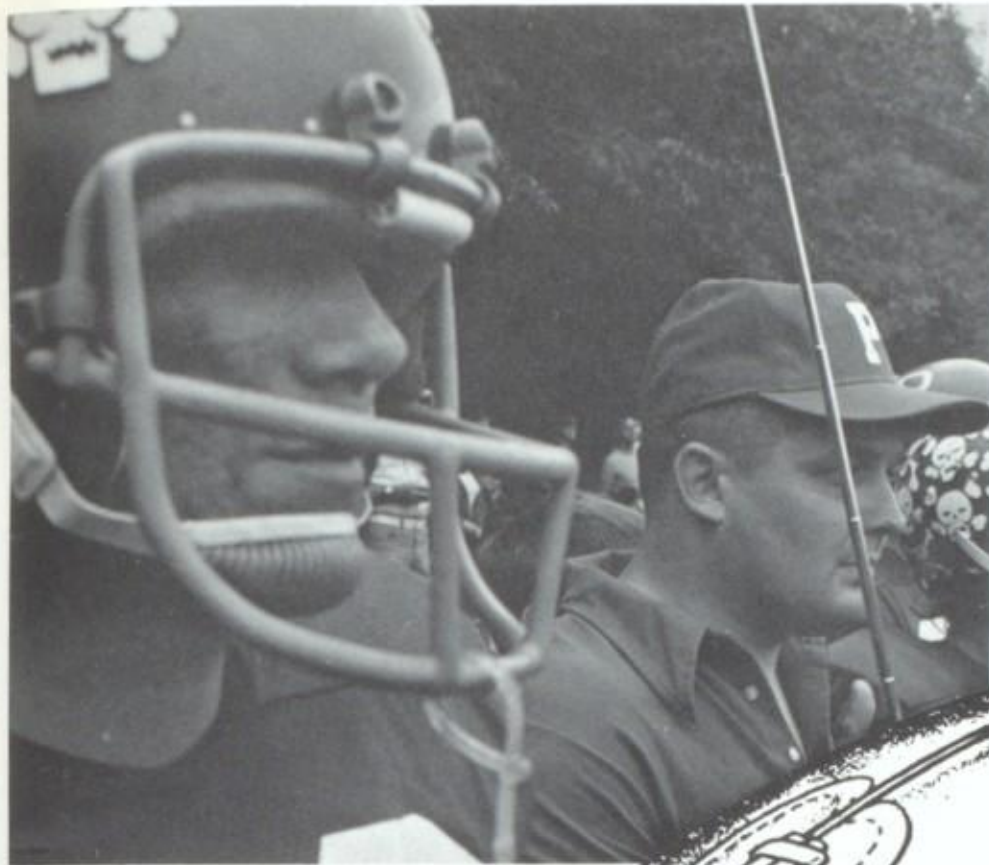

After suffering through practice, calisthenics, and scrimmages, our Perry High School football team seemed to pull through pretty well. Even after ankle taping, bruises, breaks, and fractures, there was always the hope that the "whirl pool" would always just be a locker room away. Our football team needs no hero, for our team offered us the incentive to support not only the team, but our school and town as well. Our whole team was the hero.

Cheerleaders

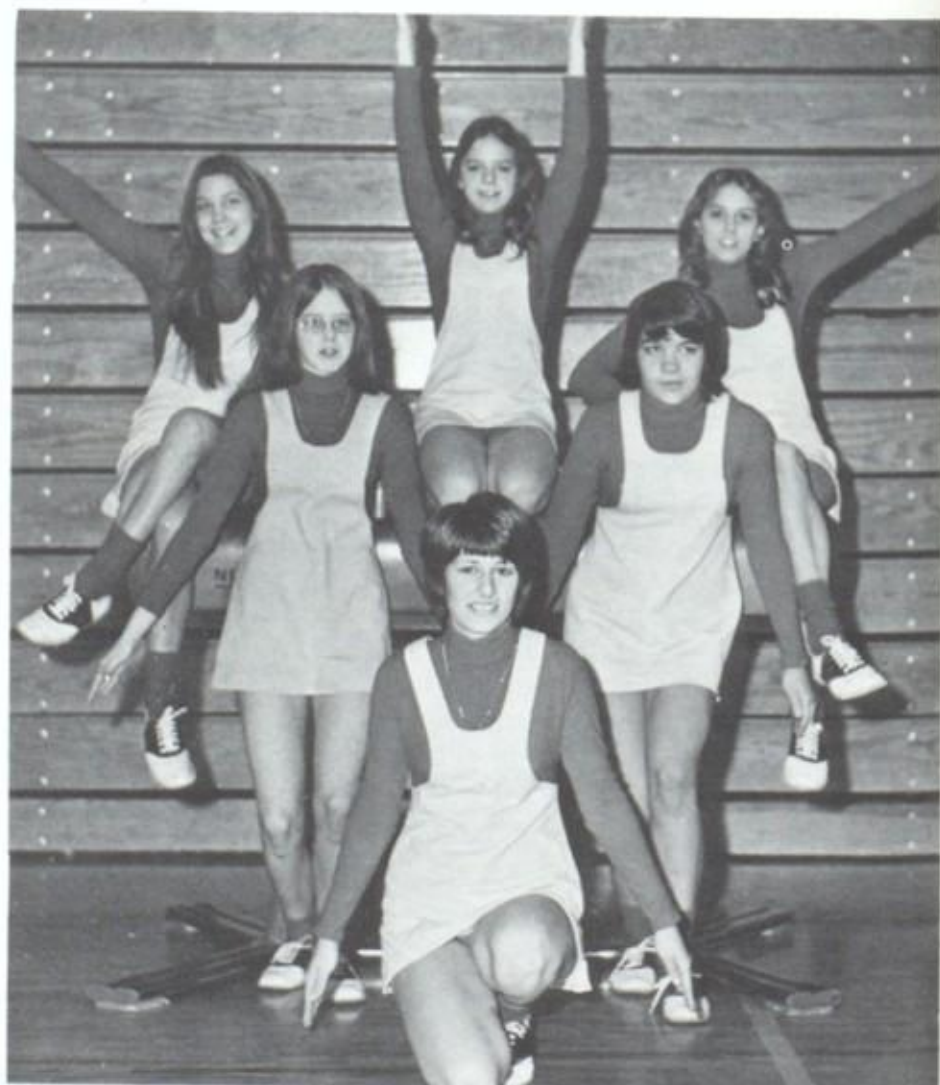

The cheerleaders are a major part of any school—more so than most people tend to recognize. They spend time practicing for their performance at the sports events just as the players do; but the duties they undertake go far beyond just that. They decorate the halls and prepare assemblies attempting to strengthen our school spirit. They have various ways of letting the players know that they're really sincere in their cheering, and do much to boost their morale. But most importantly, they advocate the same school pride that makes our school such a wonderful place to spend our four years.

Mascot: Betty Jo Mills.

The 1974-75 Perry Pirates Marching Band made their debut this marching season wearing stylish, new band uniforms. Directed by Mr. Brian Dorr, the band did a fine job of musically representing Perry High at the Lake County Marching Band Festival and the Fairport Mardi Gras parade. They also performed at all of the football games, marched in the Homecoming Parade, and added spirit to the pep rallies. At the head of the band (pictured at right) were Row One: Drum Majorette, Fellicia Headley; Majorette, Cathy Judd. Row Two: Color guard members—R. Burchett, G. Sutch, G. Farone. Row Three: D. Bonfire

Each year before the Homecoming Game, rather than having the usual Pep Rally, Perry High School holds its annual bonfire. This year the upperclass members of the football team and the Varsity Club gathered wood from various places, including an old, burned-out railroad car. On Thursday, October 17, under the supervision of the Perry Fire Department, the enormous bonfire was ignited. The cheerleaders presented a skit and led chants, the marching band played some snappy tunes, the football players gave pep talks, and everyone had a good time.

It's very elementary my boy; you see THAT is a fireman, that

Girls Basketball

Girl's basketball is a relatively new addition to our school's extra-curricular activities. Now in its 3rd year, it has proved quite successful. It allows girls the excitement of competition, the satisfaction of winning, and the knowledge of losing with dignity which have for so long belonged solely to the boys.

Spirit Day

Each year before the Perry-Madison football game, the students and faculty collaborate on the most vivid display of spirit of the whole year. Students, their markers in hand, soon brighten up the halls with their posters. The day ends with a spirited assembly, and everyone leaves the school all keyed up for the night's game.

Siesta time.

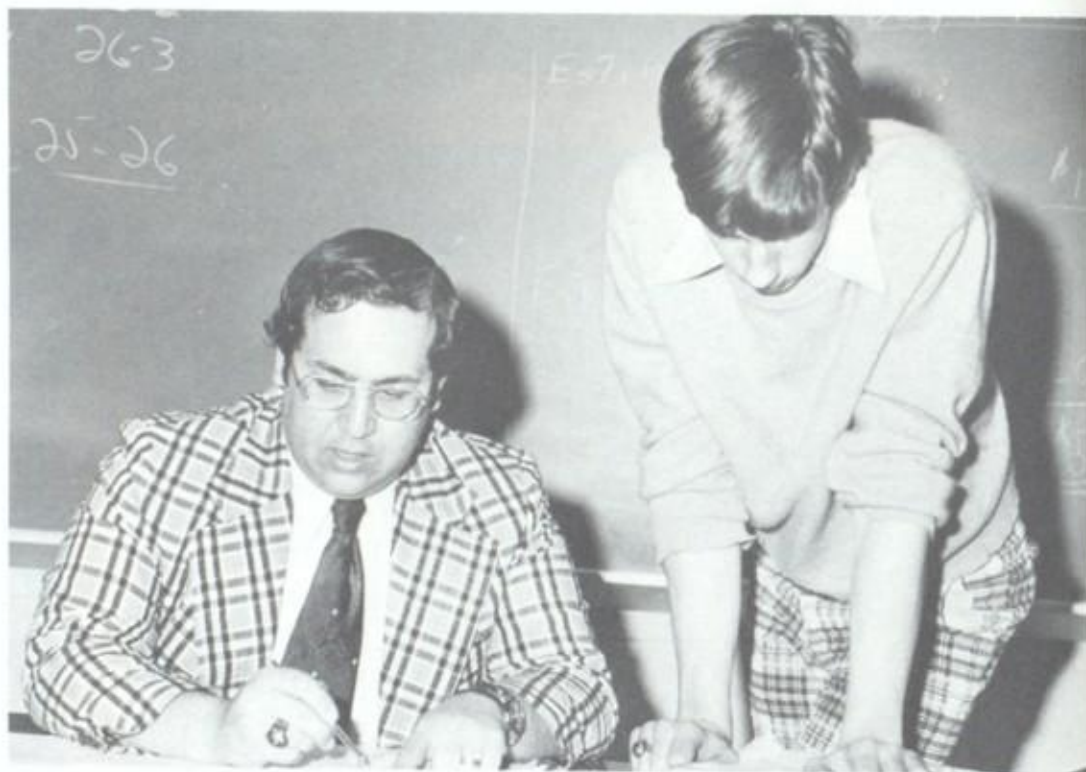

Don't let go.

Peri-Scope

Our school newspaper, the Periscope, is issued 6 times each year. Each issue is packed with school news, sports and other interesting articles. Above all, each issue is testimony of the staff's time and effort spent in relaying their journalistic creativity to the students.

Now what do I do?

A Time of Icy Winds

A slick of ice, a pile of snow,
A ladybug with no place to go;
A basketball game, a wrestling meet,
A yellowed picture blowing down the street.

A day when sun shines through thick clouds
Melting everything around.
Library days spent to work and study,
Sun shines on—and things get muddy.

Tobogganing and snowball fighting,
Outside—icy winds frostbiting.
Concerts—Sunday afternoon,
Hide yourself and wish for June.

Deep inside our paperweight world—
Shaken up, the storms unfurled.
Try to guess when spring will come?
Oh no, our winter's just begun!

Art Club

Trophy for Float.

The Art Club provides advertising, decorating, and many other things for the other clubs at PHS. Also after a lot of time and hard work this organization won first prize for the float entered in the WIXY and May Co. Christmas Parade in Cleveland. They also hold an Art Show in May at the School.

Basketball

Basketball, a precision game made up of timing, skill and teamwork, ranks high in popularity at our school. Those who participate in it sacrifice much time and effort in order to win, not only for their team and their school, but for themselves. Personal satisfaction constitutes a large part of basketball. Though the Pirates record wasn't flawless, they always tried their best. Like the old adage says, "It's not if you win or lose, it's how you play the game." Nice job guys!

Mr. Baker watches in anticipation.

What is this, a frisk?

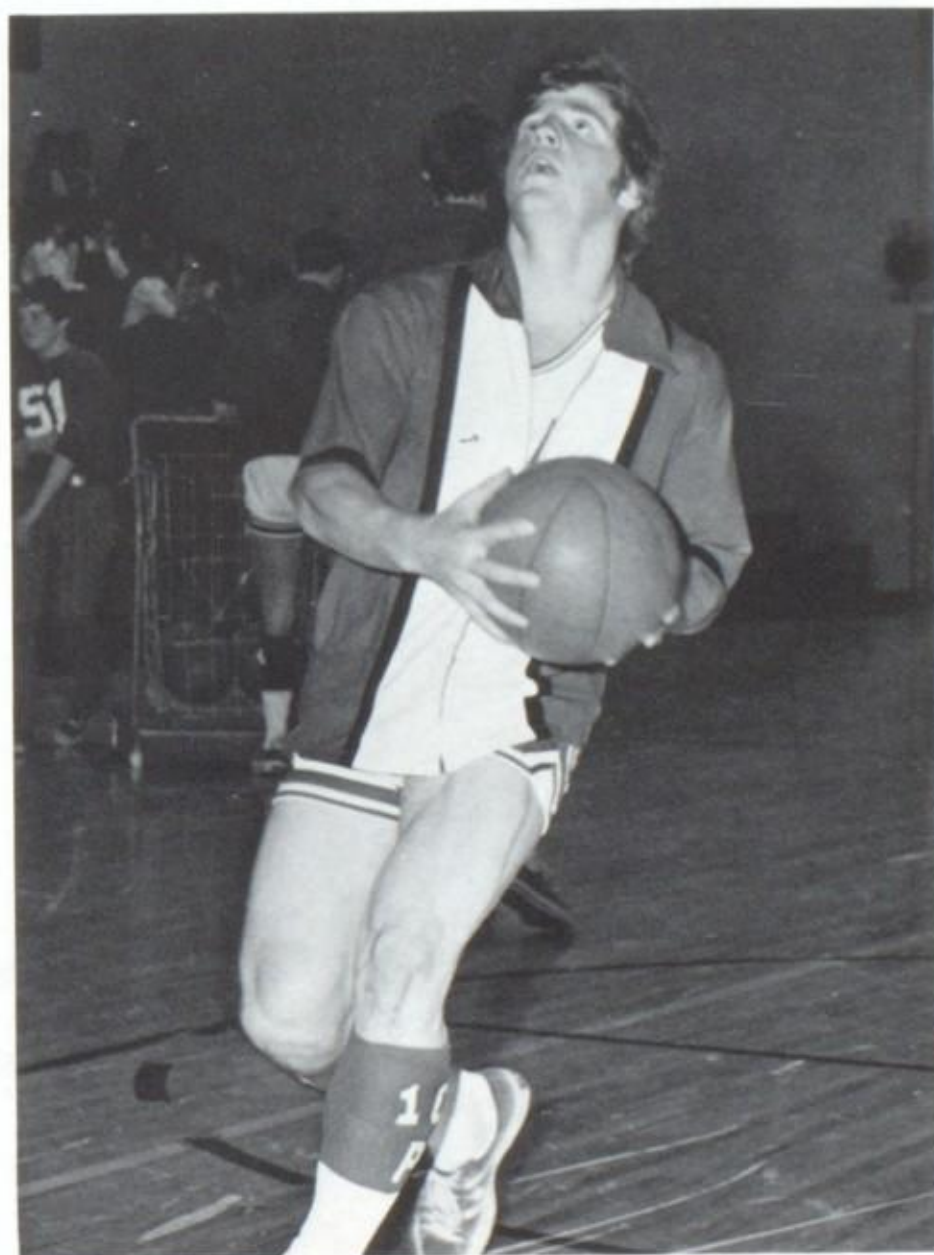

Now boys, we ALL can't have it.

Okay dad, this is the strategy.

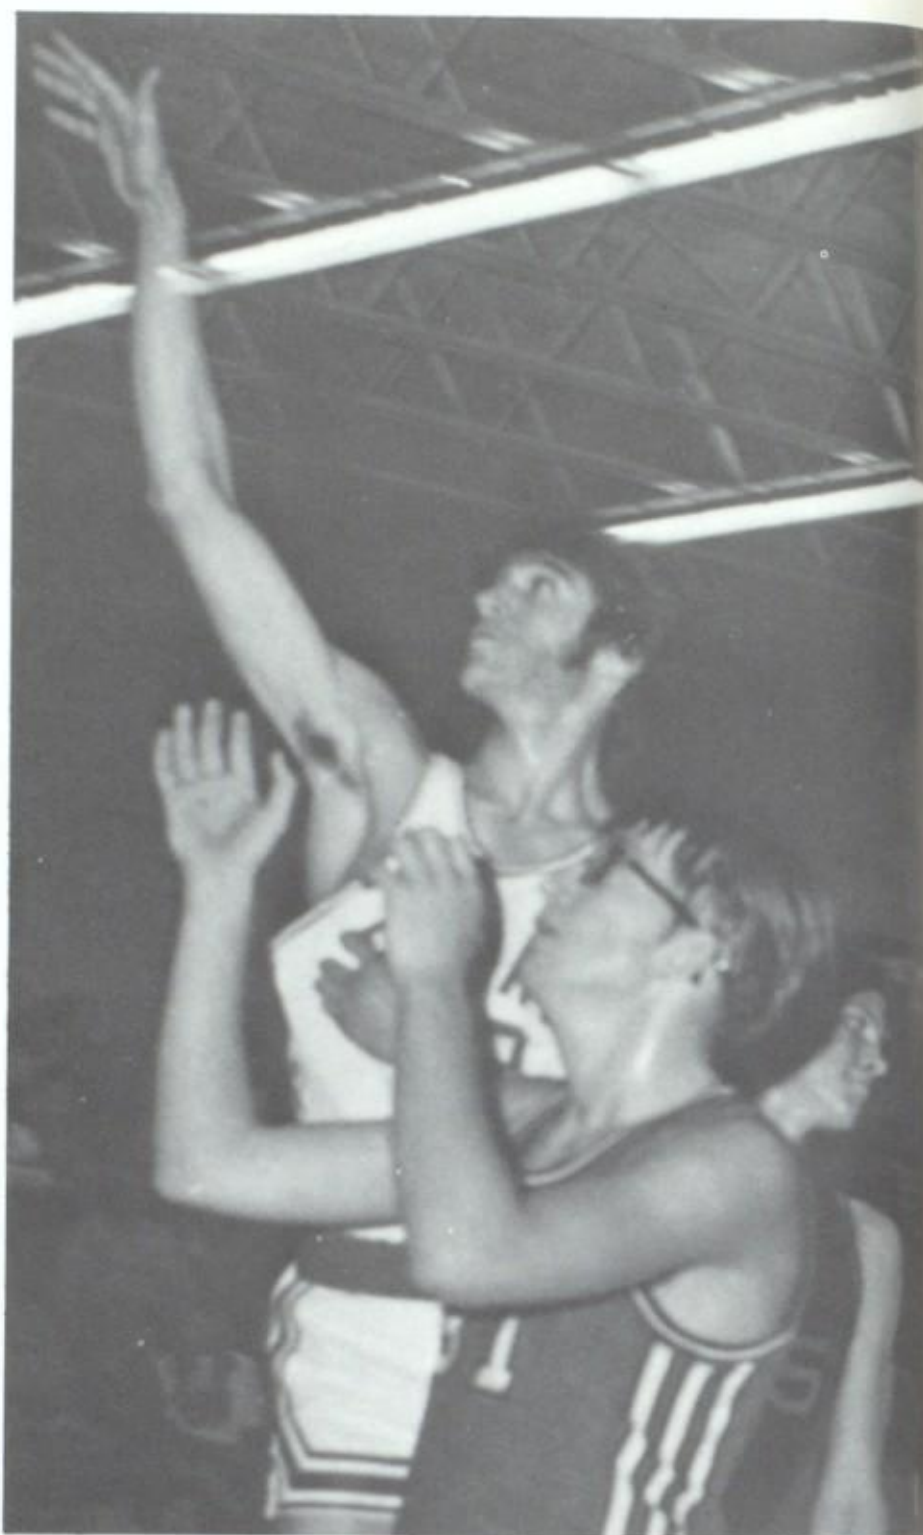

No Bones, this isn't the high jump.

That's a long way up.

Christmas Concert

This year's Christmas Concert, held in the High School Gymnasium on December 18, presented traditional and some very enjoyable untraditional compositions. A well rounded program, which included strolling, snowball throwing carollers, and even Santa Claus himself, was presented by the Fifth Grade Choir, the Seventh and Eighth Grade Choir, the Concert Band, the Concert Choir, and the Buccaneers. Under Mr. Brian Dorr's direction, the Concert Band's selections included a medley of carols entitled "A Christmas Festival" and Percy Faith's snappy "Brazilian Sleigh Bells". Besides some traditional favorites, the Concert Choir performed a beautiful new selection, "Hey Manger Child". The girls chorus was featured, and Jennie Snyder sang a lovely rendition of "The Birthday of a King". The Buccaneers performed the delightful "T'was the Night Before Christmas", and the Concert Choir and Buccaneers combined in the performance of two selections from Handel's MESSIAH, "And the Glory of the Lord", and "The Hallelujah Chorus". All choral groups were directed by Mr. Carl Wehn, and were accompanied by Frank Daykin and Debbie Christian on piano, Mrs. Mabel Dort on organ, Fellicia Headley on bells, and Mark Schmelzer on bongos.

Wrestling

Wrestling is a relatively new sport at PHS and is fast making its way to the top. Our wrestlers, who have devoted so much of their time and energy are solely responsible for this. Considering what lies behind each match—the practice, the working and starving to make weight, the planning of strategies, our wrestlers have much to be congratulated for.

These girls don't know how many friends they have until they bake one of their delicious desserts. Cooking, sewing and cleaning are just a few of the many things Mrs. Quade has taught them. Even in their busy schedule they take time out for Christmas projects. The girls really enjoy getting together and exchanging new ideas.

Varsity Club

In order to be a member of this club, one must earn a Varsity letter in his sport. These boys raise money for sporting equipment by selling refreshments during the winter sports.

Le Cercle Français est composé des étudiants qui suivent ou qui ont suivi une classe de français, ou qui expriment un intérêt aux sujets français. Cette année les membres sont allés à "Jacques Brel is Alive and Well and Living in Paris," une comédie—musicale composée par Jacques Brel, un musicien français. Ils travaillent maintenant pour gagner l'argent pour aller à Paris l'année prochaine.

Jr.-Sr. Class Play

This year's presentation of Patricia Malango's "The Boy Who Changed the World" proved to be an entertaining and comical success. Directed by W. Carl Wehn, the play tells of life in the days when men and women wore animals skins, lived in caves, and the main purpose of life was hunting animals for survival. George, a teenage boy, seems to be ill-fitted for this type of life. Hunting and the like just aren't his thing, and since these are the subjects which are taught in the local school by the dashing teacher, Paul the Professor, George isn't going to graduate. This breaks the hearts of his poor parents, John the Strong and Agatha, who realize that this will mean that George won't receive his club and will almost certainly be cast out of the village and meet death. But this fate doesn't phase Mozelle, a teenage girl who loves George, even though he regards her as a pest. When a new family moves into town from a nearby village that was demolished by a dinosaur stampede, George is severely taken by their beautiful daughter, Dorothy. He invents poetry, music, and art to try to impress her. The mayor, Irving the Great Nose, and his side-kick Ralph the Fast Runner, try to use George's strange behavior to foil his father's campaign for mayor. The town gossips, Irma and Genevieve, don't make life any easier for George's mother. But he surprises them all when he invents the wheel, falls in love with Mozelle, and saves his life.

"The Boy Who Changed The World"

The townspeople ask the vital question, "But what does it do?"

You see my boys, ours was the first town . . .

John—Get your hand out of the cold slaw!

Betty—Don't tell anyone but this hamster just "went" all over my hands!

Sit down Bob—We already have a teacher!

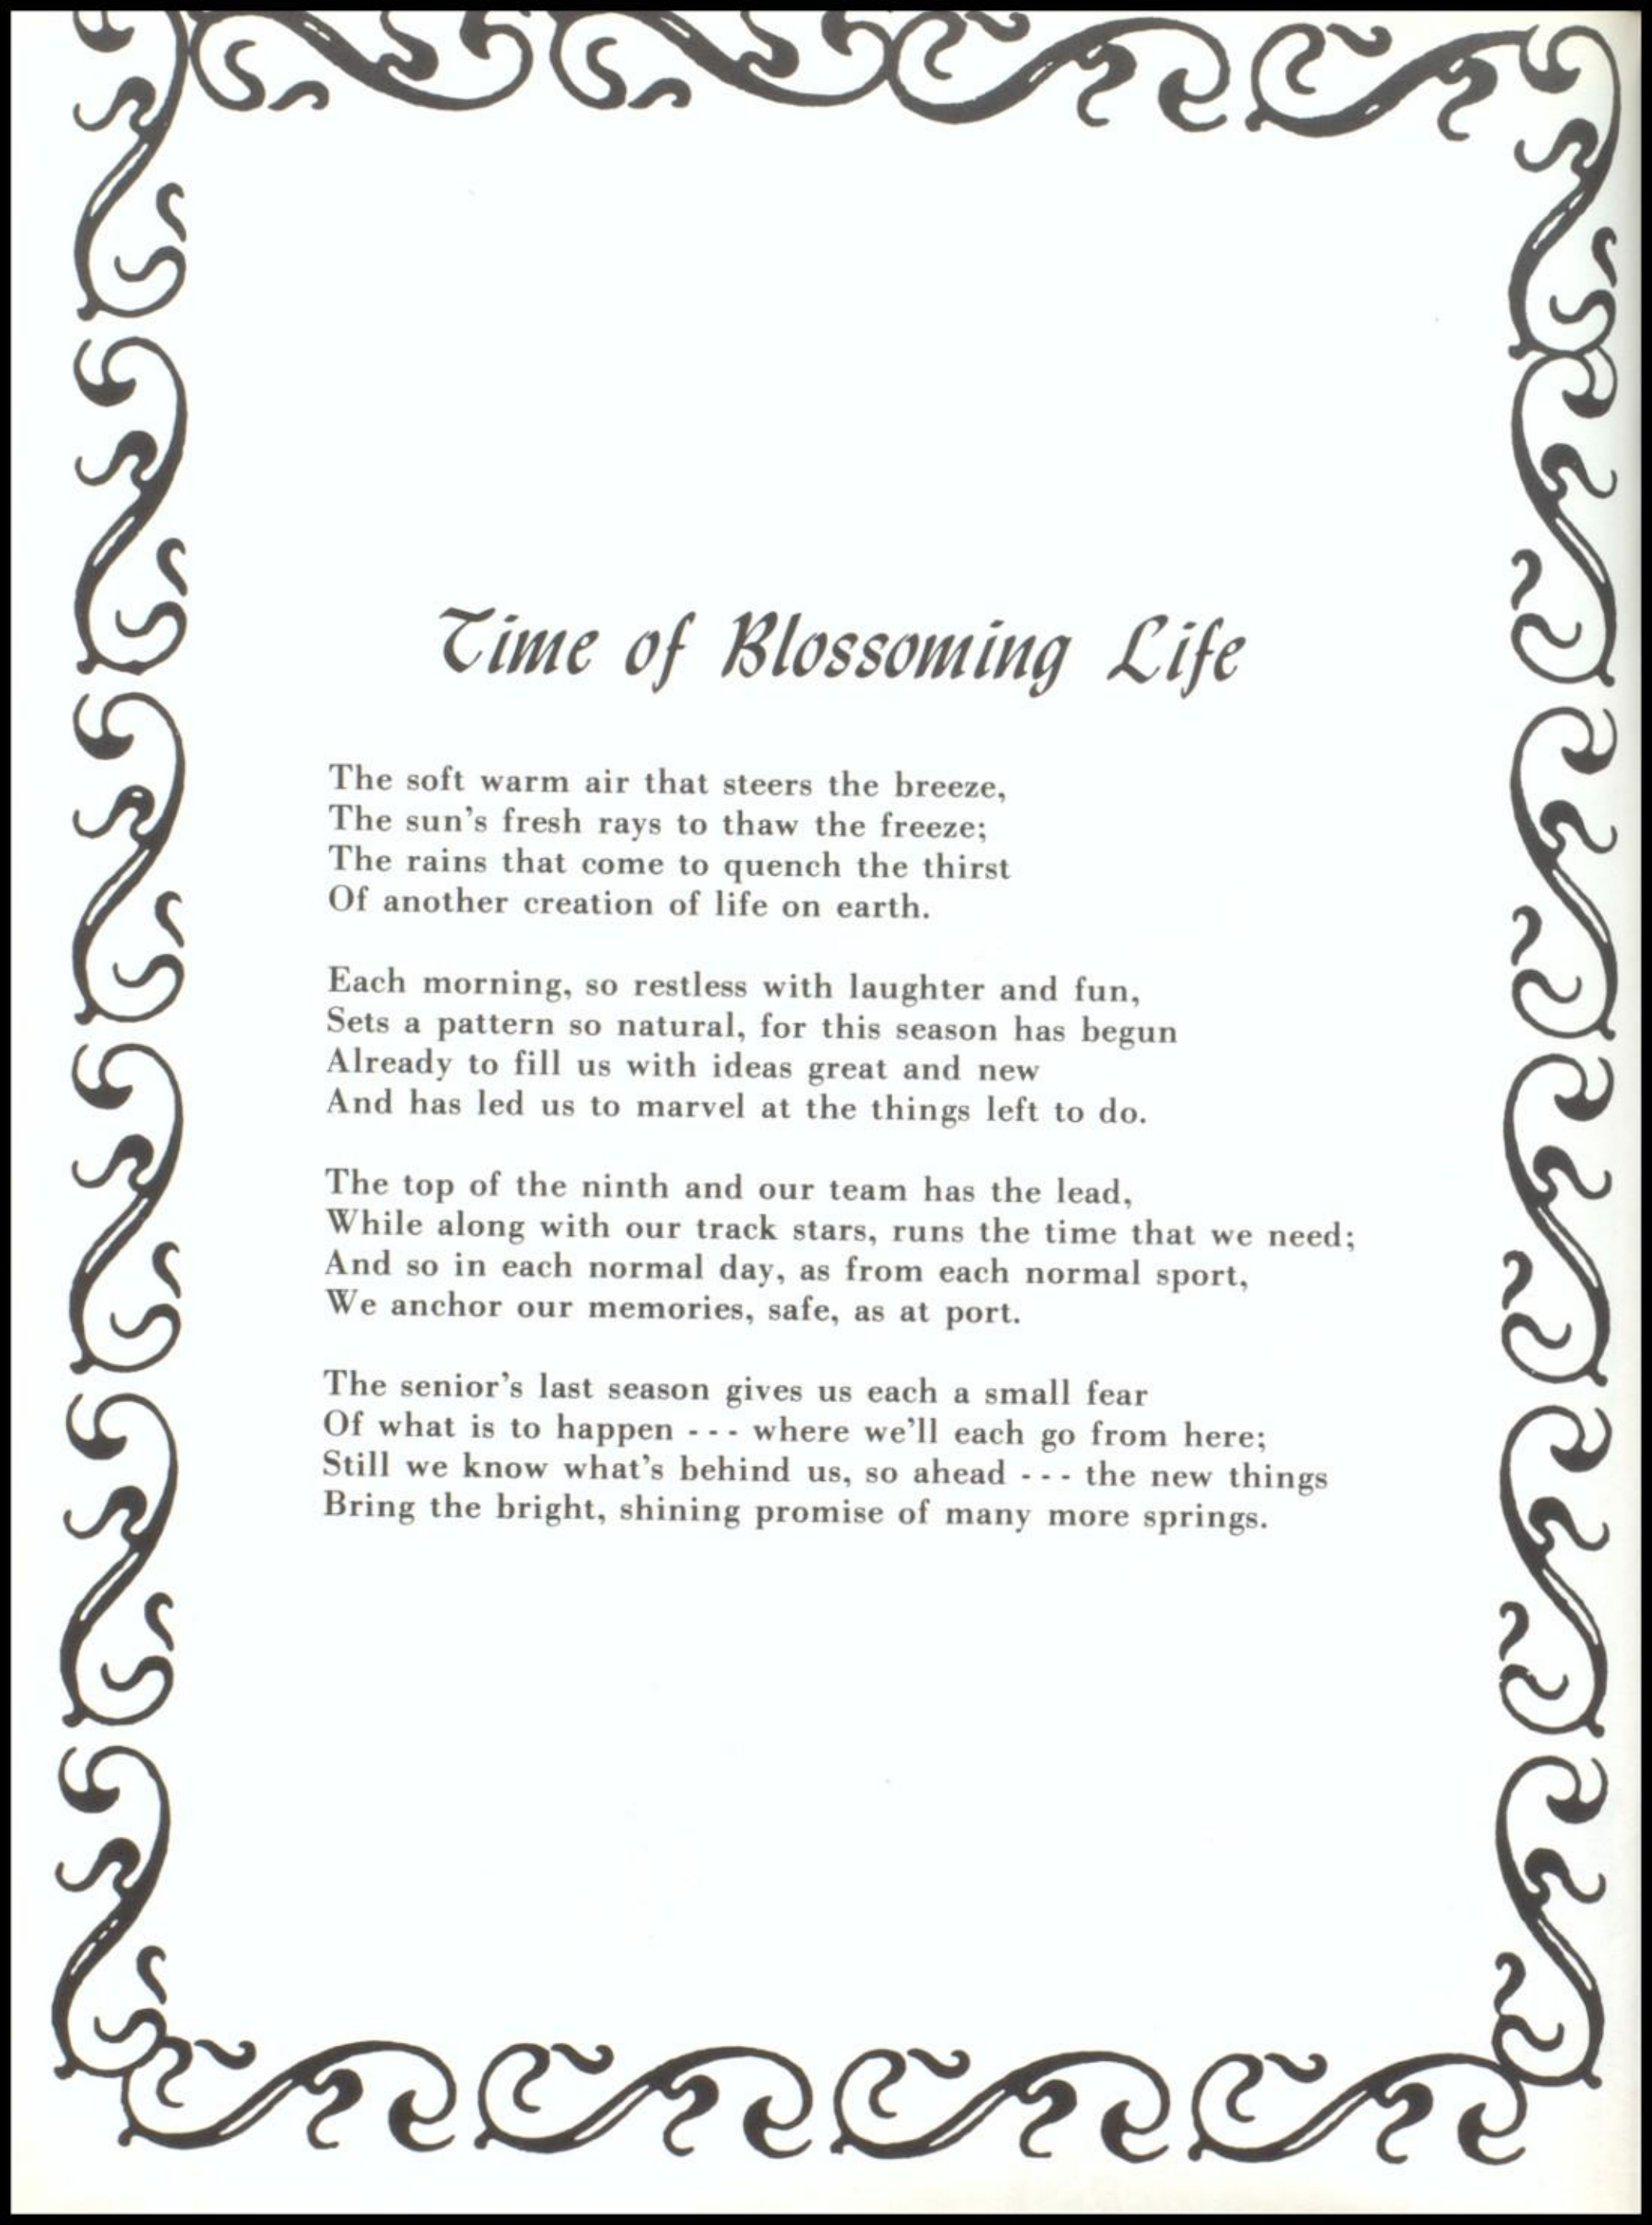

Hey everybody—Look at me!

Hold still.

A decorative border of intricate scrollwork and floral patterns surrounds the text.

Time of Blossoming Life

The soft warm air that steers the breeze,
The sun's fresh rays to thaw the freeze;
The rains that come to quench the thirst
Of another creation of life on earth.

Each morning, so restless with laughter and fun,
Sets a pattern so natural, for this season has begun
Already to fill us with ideas great and new
And has led us to marvel at the things left to do.

The top of the ninth and our team has the lead,
While along with our track stars, runs the time that we need;
And so in each normal day, as from each normal sport,
We anchor our memories, safe, as at port.

The senior's last season gives us each a small fear
Of what is to happen - - - where we'll each go from here;
Still we know what's behind us, so ahead - - - the new things
Bring the bright, shining promise of many more springs.

Interest Centers

Interest Centers which are in their second year at Perry High have been an exciting part of our school year. They were first started in order to find something for students to do in their study halls. Some of the things which were interest centers this year include, knitting, bachelor cooking, an alcoholism discussion, a marijuana sniffing dog demonstration, and gardening. These interest centers have helped to bring some life into our students and study halls.

IAP Class

Project of the year, Rocky Football Players

This year was the first year for the Perry High School IAP class. The program is designed to give individual assistance to students needing additional help in selected subjects. Students attend classes at Perry High for half a day and a half a day at Freedom Road Vocational School. The class project was the formation of the Work-Study club. The club constructed rock football players that were sold to support club activities.

You were supposed to smile!

Rocky bugs, too?

Now, that's a smile!

Library

During the school year a lot of people try to get acquainted with the library. These people work with Miss Madeja, learning how to file books, magazines, use the card catalogue, and mainly how to keep a library in good working order.

Chess Club

During the 1974-75 school year the chess team was very active and very successful in many tournaments throughout Ohio. The high point of the year was their trip to New York City to participate in the National High School Championships. Six team members, Dan Hambleton, Ed Lewis, Dave Decker, Mark Gillespie, Darah Headley, Dan Keller and Mr. and Mrs. Chew traveled to New York as part of the group of eighty-eight players and chaperones sponsored by the Cleveland Chess Association. The team placed seventeenth out of fifty teams in the Novice Division. Darah Headley placed as first girl in the Novice Division.

In GAA the girls participate in four different sports throughout the school year; hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball. Each class plays against the other three classes to try to win the championship for each particular sport.

This organization is made possible under the supervision of Mrs. Mackey along with the help of the officers; President—Senior Sue Strayer, Vice President—Junior Jennie Crofoot, and Secretary-Treasurer—Sophomore Julie Lukey.

Each member pays $1.50 for dues at the beginning of the year. These dues are used for trophies, pins, letters and numerals which are awarded to each member who earns them. The awards are received during the banquet which is held at the end of the year.

The GAA Banquet is held at the school. All the girls play softball and then they go into the cafeteria for a pot luck dinner. There is entertainment and then the awards are distributed.

Musical: "ANNIE

On April 11 and 12, the Music Dept. presented their annual musical. This year's production, "Annie Get Your Gun" was directed in Mr. Carl Wehn's usual creative and professional style. The musical is based on the life of Annie Oakley, her phenomenal shooting skill, her rise to fame and her love for the champion sharpshooter, Frank Butler. Annie defeats Frank in a shooting match in Cincinnati and is persuaded to join Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show as Frank's assistant, replacing Dolly Tate. Frank's love for Annie is cut short when she performs a fantastic trick and deflates his ego. Frank and Dolly join Pawnee Bill's Far East Show, and Chief Sitting Bull joins Annie in Buffalo Bill's Show. Completely out of funds, both shows propose a merger unaware of the others financial condition. The merge nearly falls through, so Annie offers her medals from royalty to finance it. Frank asks Annie to marry him and all seems fine, until rivalry forces Annie to challenge him to a shooting match, putting all her medals against his few tin badges. With the help of Dolly, Chief Sitting Bull and Charlie bent the sights of Annie's guns. Annie realizes she must lose to win Frank. Frank and Annie win each other and give the medals to Buffalo and Pawnee Bill to finance their show. Ask any cast member and they'll tell you that the long hours, the hard work, and the frustrations were all worth the memories and knowledge they gained from this production. And they'll probably tell you another thing that they're all going to miss a certain director who is very special.

Baseball

While most of the guys at Perry were busy working or just waiting till school was out to do their thing, our Perry High School Baseball team was busy with batting practice, pitching, and fielding. These boys put in a lot of hard work during the Spring, even if they would have liked to be just taking it easy. To these boys we owe a lot of credit.

Coach Walters tries to give some helpful hints.

Good John, we didn't think you'd make it.

See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil.

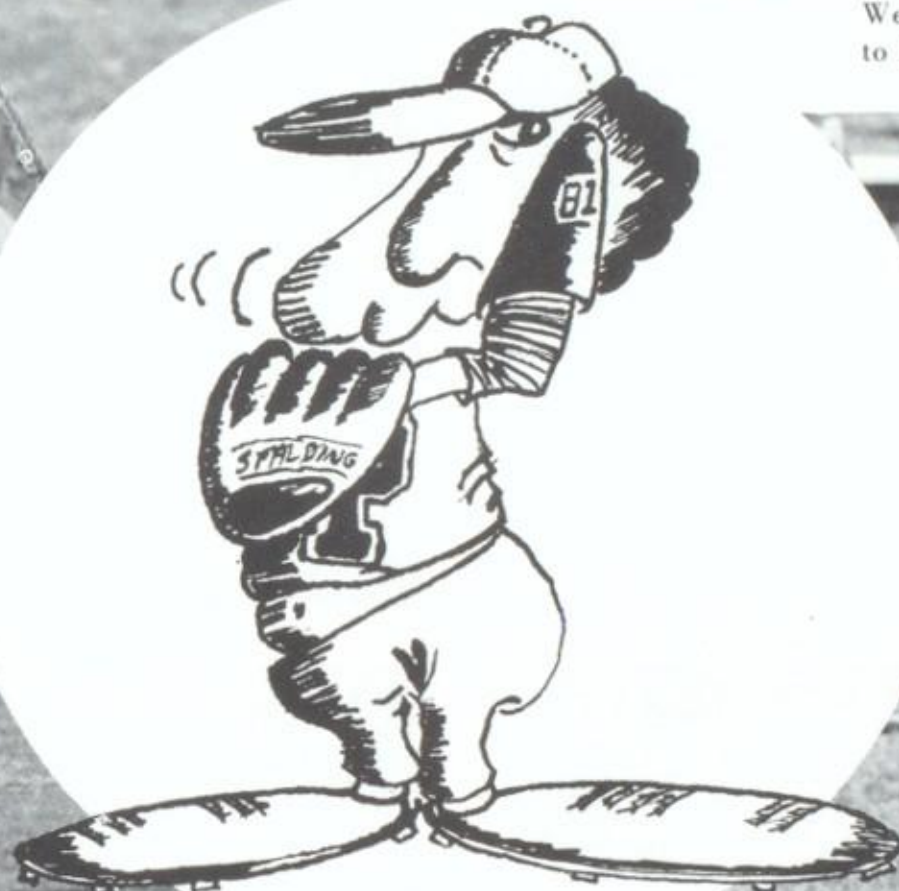

Are you pleased, Mr. Walters?

We all know it's you John, you don't have to hide your face.

Prom 1975, was held at Quail Hollow Inn on May 3, with the theme being "The Way We Were". Along with artistic decorations and fine refreshments, the band "Reign" added to the night's highlights. About midway through the evening, seniors Cindy Keener and Ken Brown were crowned Prom King and Queen. Thanks to the Junior Class, the Seniors have a night that will probably be long remembered.

Graduation

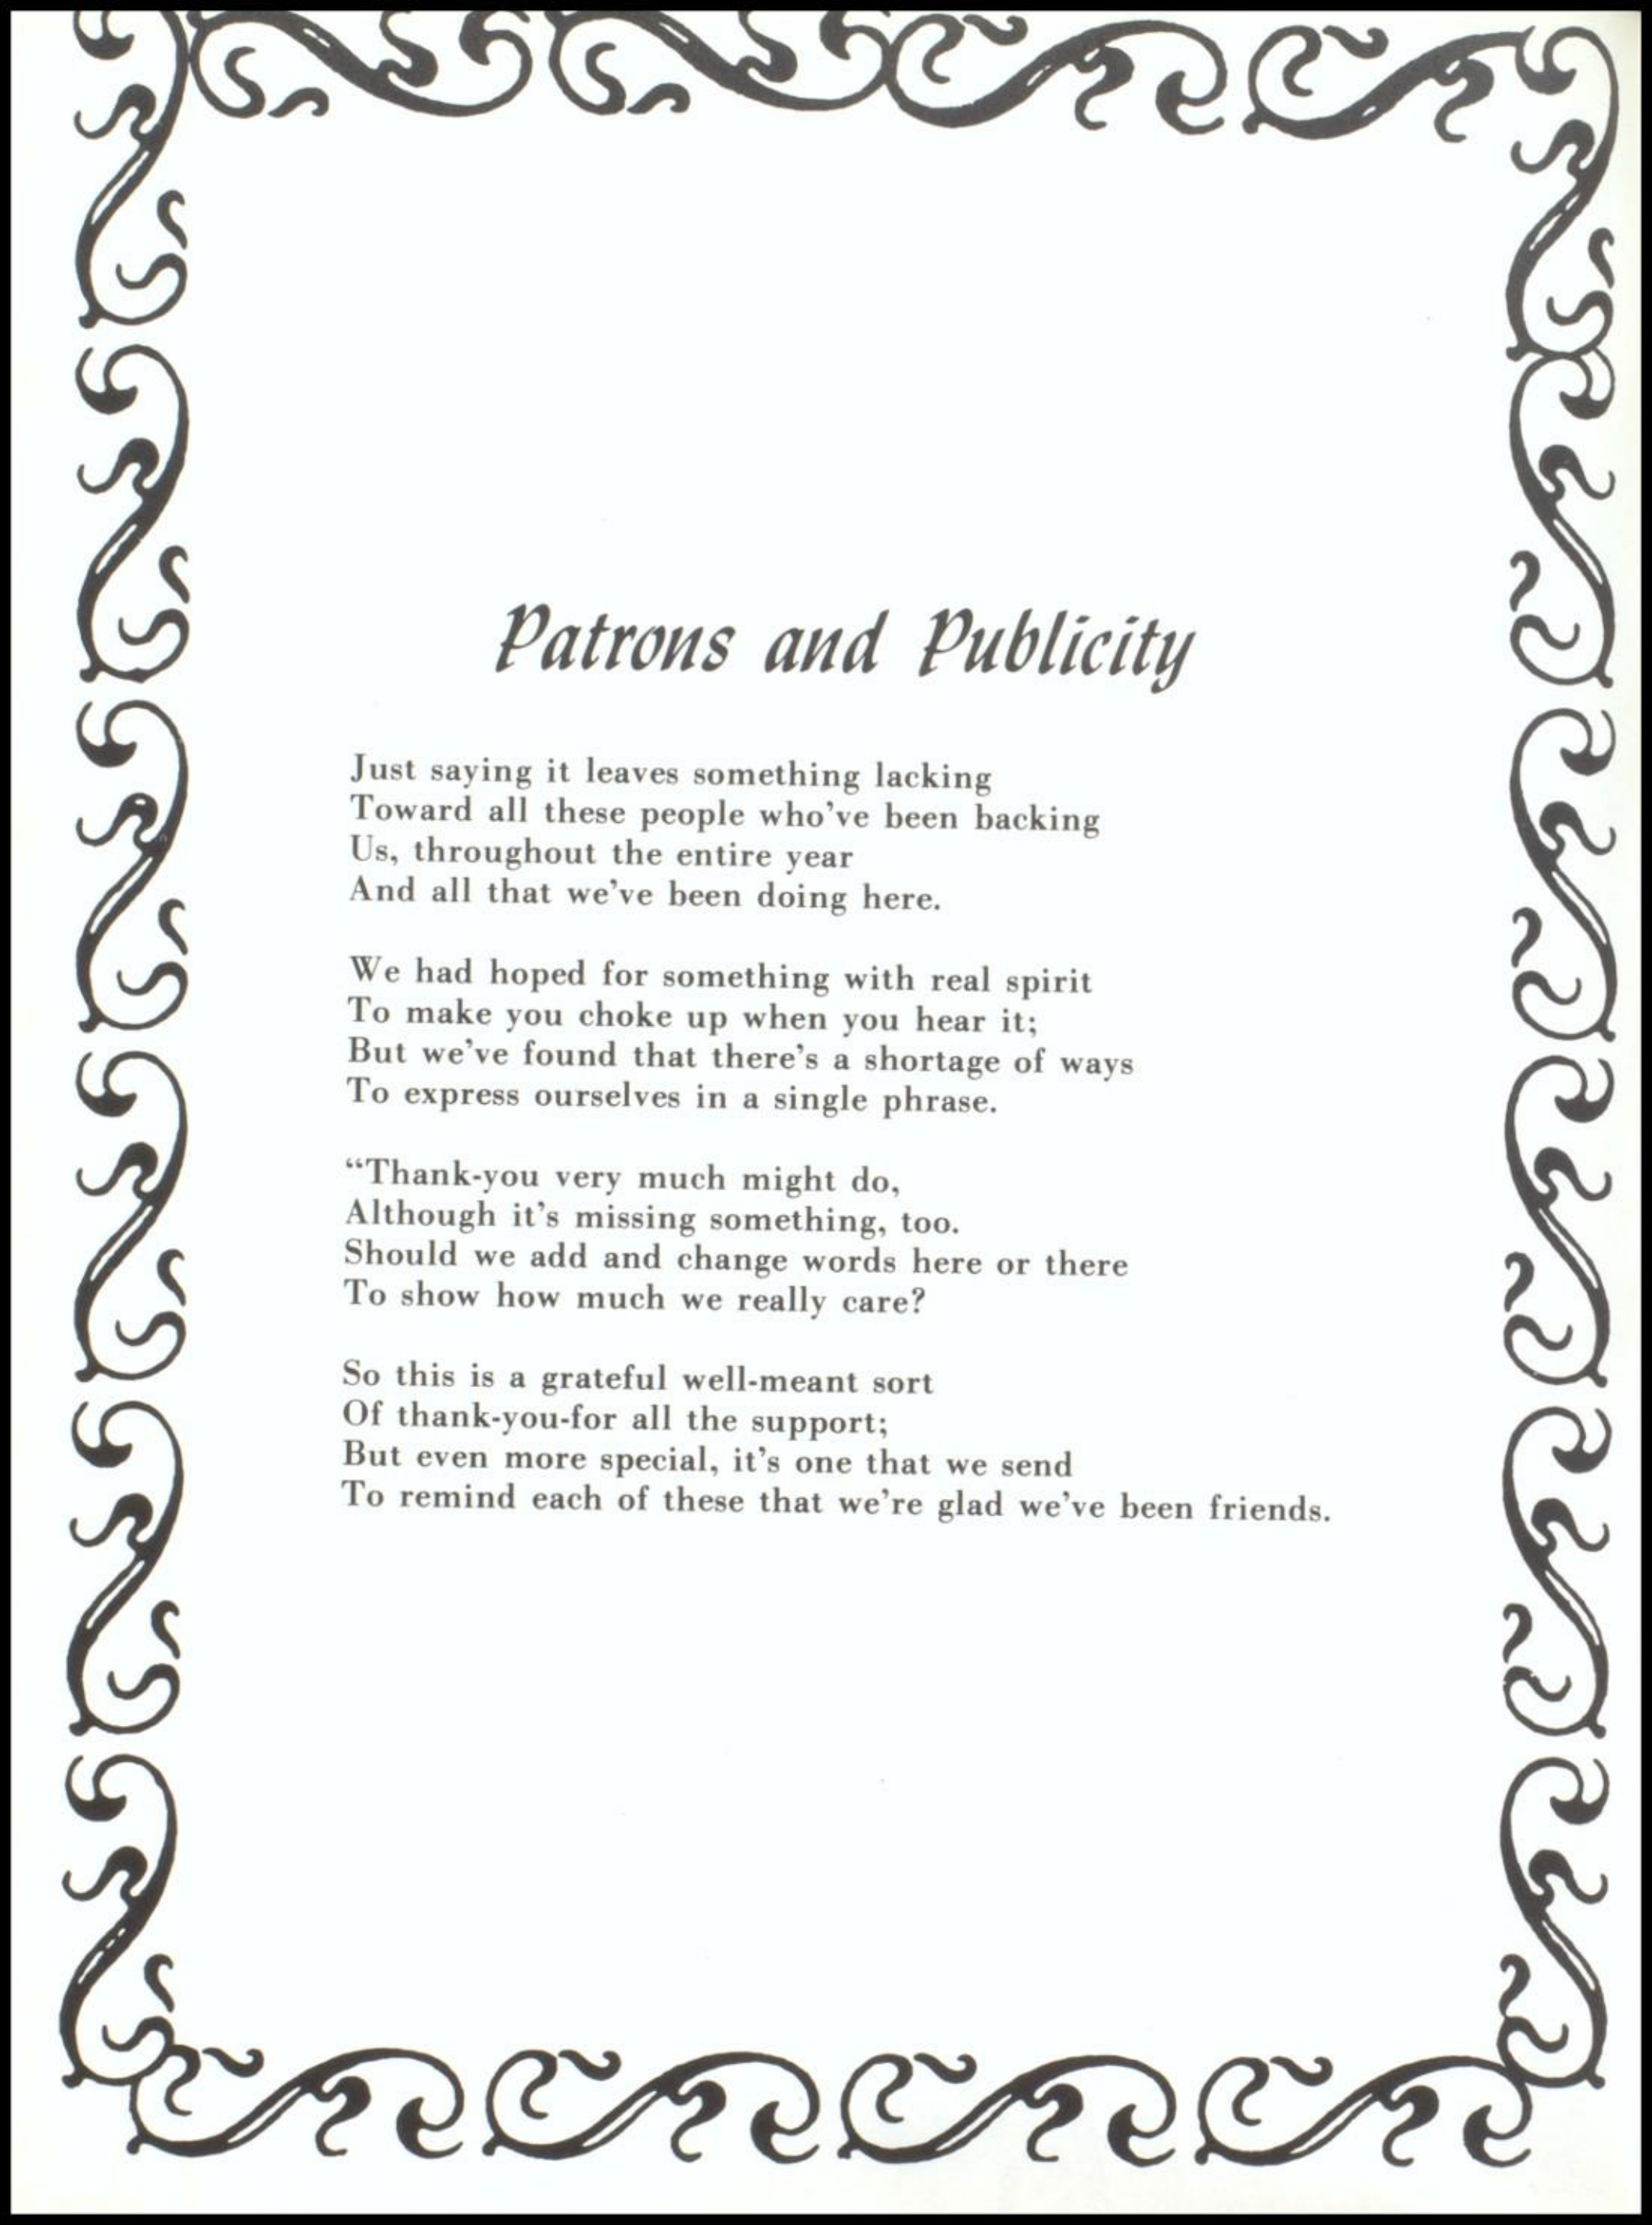

"Final Days"

For your devotion to your students and your love of teaching,
For the times you have gone out of your way to help,
For the patience which you possess in dealing with problems great and small,
For the pleasure you have given others by helping them to express themselves,
For the pride you've taken in doing a job well,
For the interest and understanding you've shared,
For the joy you have given by making many projects a success,
For all of these things and countless more,
We, the 1975 yearbook staff, dedicate this yearbook to you, Mrs. Eleanor Baker.
A tribute that certainly does not equal the many gifts you have given to others, but is our vehicle of expressing our high respect and gratefulness.

Patrons and Publicity

Just saying it leaves something lacking
Toward all these people who've been backing
Us, throughout the entire year
And all that we've been doing here.

We had hoped for something with real spirit
To make you choke up when you hear it;
But we've found that there's a shortage of ways
To express ourselves in a single phrase.

"Thank-you very much might do,
Although it's missing something, too.
Should we add and change words here or there
To show how much we really care?

So this is a grateful well-meant sort
Of thank-you-for all the support;
But even more special, it's one that we send
To remind each of these that we're glad we've been friends.
